INSIDE PRODUCERS HYBRIDS

---

Producers Hybrids started in 1987 in Battle Creek, Nebraska with a goal of bringing high yielding products to the market that fit your needs. In 2005, we joined forces with AgReliant Genetics to help make the products for your farm even better. Today we market in seven western states and are still focused on the needs of your farm.

- Backed by AgReliant Genetics, the 3rd Largest Seed Corn company in the U.S.
- Research Stations and Production Facilities strategically located across the corn belt that grow and develop products for your farm.
- We use our industry leading di-haploid technology with our private library of genetics to develop products for your farm.
- AgReliant Genetics is the largest independent seed-only company in the industry.
